

About the club

Established in 1886 Warrington Photographic Society is Warrington's oldest camera club. It serves to encourage development of its members skills and interest in producing, developing and manipulating images of all genres. During summer months we meet for a number of informal events which offer a variety of photo opportunities from nature and wildlife through to sporting events.

Although not a teaching organisation, the society has a wealth of experience in all aspects of image creation and we encourage photographers of all abilities to come along and share their work and experiences.

The Society is affiliated with the LCPU which provides panels of judges and lecturers which are used during the programme. It also send a selective entry of prints and projected digital images (PDIs) to the annual competition organised by the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB). The results are exhibited annually as the best of British Photography of the Year.
